CAMPBELL GOVERNOR

Assumes the Position to Which He Was Elected.

SCENE IS IMPRESSIVE

Oath of Office Administered by Associate Justice Williams, Who Also Obligated New Lieutenant Governor.

Austin, Jan. 15.—With an open Bible held between them Associate Justice P. A. Williams of the state supreme court administered the oath of office to Hon. Thomas M. Campbell of Palestine whereby the latter became governor of the Lone State state. The oath was taken at 12:10 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. The new governor kissed the holy book after he had assumed the obligation. The ceremony took place in the house, which was crowded. The new governor was then introduced by his predecessor, ex-Governor Lanham.

At 11:45 Senator Bailey entered and was escorted by Jot Gunter and Colonel Peeler. At 11:55 the senate was admitted to the house. Senator Skinner presided with Speaker Love. After the roll call the report of the committee on inauguration was adopted.

At 12:05 Colonel Campbell and Governor Lanham entered the hall. The band played "The Campbells Are Coming." Then followed Attorney General Davidson and new and old state officials. "Dixie" was played and the crowd went wild. The chaplain of the senate led in prayer.

The oath was administered to Lieutenant Governor Davidson by Associate Justice Williams.

On motion of Mr. Looney of the senate and Mr. Hamilton of the house, Senator Bailey was asked to speak. He was warmly cheered. Senator Bailey said that the applause was the mark of confidence and good nature. He referred to the election of Messrs. Campbell and Davidson and said that if the people would come to the house next Tuesday week they would see the re-election of a United States senator.

At 12:25 Governor Campbell began his speech. An East Texan caused cheers by waving a fishing pole on which was tied a bandana handkerchief. Governor Campbell paid a compliment to the retiring administration and said Governor Lanham was his friend and enjoyed the confidence of the people of Texas. He remarked that the governorship was the first state office to which he had ever aspired and pledged himself to do his duty by the whole people. He said that during the strenuous campaign he remembered no act of his that he would recall and he paid a high compliment to his opponents. He said that if he had been unjustly criticised in the campaign he freely and willingly forgave and assured the assemblage that he had no bitterness in his heart. The new governor pledged himself to support every platform demand and said every state official was bound to support it. (Cheers.) He spoke of the essential principles of liberty and free government and said these principles would have his unqualified endorsement and co-operation.

Governor Campbell said the governor's office would be open at all times to representatives and senators. He commended the public officers to observe civic righteousness. He said sweep from the floor of this hall the hired lobbies and put down for all time the enemies of the people's government. (Cheers.)

At 12:30 Lieutenant Governor Davidson was sworn in. Retiring Lieutenant Governor Neal presented Mr. Davidson. The latter thanked the members of the legislature and the people and assembled for the honor conferred upon him. He said he had pledged himself to support the party platform and do his duty to the best of his ability. He promised the senate chamber would be cleared of lobbyists and promised in every way to carry into execution all platform demands of the Democratic party. He said that his administration would be a "hammer and tongs" administration as it had been a "hammer and tongs" campaign. Mr. Davidson said that he promised the governor that he would hold the tongs no matter how big the sparks. He caused laughter when he said his position was ornamental and that he was peculiarly fitted for that place. He said he was heart and soul with the club ladies of Texas in preserving the relics of the south and Texas.

FIRE IN PRINTERIES.

Chicago Firms Sustain Great Loss by Partial Burning of Building.

Chicago, Jan. 15.—A half million dollars' worth of property was destroyed Tuesday by a fire which partially burned the eight-story building at 407-429 Dearborn street occupied principally by M. A. Donohue & Co., printers and publishers. The fire is thought to have been caused by spontaneous combustion. Other firms whose places of business were destroyed were Thalman Printing company, E. Moorehouse, Edward Fleming company, bookbinders; Geo. H. Benedict & Co., publishers; the W. S. Reeves Printing and Publishing company, Thomas W. Jackson Publishing company, Andalusia Cork company, Voice Publishing company, Henry & Hughes Publishing company, Standard Electric company, and Abbott Bros., wholesale druggists.

SENTER SPEAKS LONG

Senator From the Dallas District Makes the Speech of Greatest Length Ever Heard in the Upper House.

Austin, Jan. 15.—Senator Senter made the longest speech on record in the Texas legislature on Monday. He spoke for forty-five minutes before the noon adjournment, resumed at 2 o'clock and kept on talking until 8:42 o'clock, when he was taken off the floor by appeal from the decision of the chair holding him to order.

His subject was the proposal to investigate Senator Bailey which was suddenly precipitated in the senate Monday morning.

Senator Senter is rather small in stature and frail. He is not the type any one would expect to undertake the strenuous task that he tackled Monday. It was generally believed that three or four hours would prove his limit, but he gamely held the floor for seven and one-half hours, fortified only with a small bottle of whisky, which he sipped now and then, and a bag of lemons. And he talked steadily, added but little by questions. He was still wound up when the "silent lever" was pulled on him.

It developed that the Bailey forces in the senate had a majority. They proceeded to recall from the committee on privileges and elections the Senter resolution on investigation, which was to have been the subject of a hearing in that committee. Senator Bailey and Attorney General Davidson had been invited to attend. Having gotten the resolution back from committee, the Bailey senators proceeded to call it up for consideration and then they offered a substitute. The substitute is similar to that pending in the house, but it quickly goes down to the meat, cutting out a bunch of the whereases. It provides a committee to sit and hear charges, which are to be reported to the senate for instructions.

The resolution was adopted after Senator Senter was taken off the floor. At the afternoon session of the house Representative McConnell of Palo Pinto county spoke in behalf of Senator Bailey.

RESOLUTION PREVAILS.

Is in Nature of Substitute For That of Senator Senter.

Austin, Jan. 15.—In the senate Tuesday morning the Bailey forces gained another victory when Senator Looney had adopted a resolution which is in the nature of a substitute for Mr. Senter's resolution adopted Monday night. Senator Terrell arose to a point of order upon the introduction of Senter's resolution before the body, contending that it was in conflict with the substitute adopted Monday night. The chair overruled the point of order.

Senator Green of Bexar introduced a resolution providing for investigation of Attorney General Davidson. Senator Looney contended that it was unconstitutional and takes away the power of impeachment. The resolution was referred to the judiciary committee No. 1.

A resolution endorsing President Roosevelt in his course in discharging the negro troops at Brownsville was adopted.

Senator Senter got the floor and delivered a lengthy speech on the matter. Senator Senter was still speaking when the senate took a recess for the inauguration ceremonies.

LAND RECLAMATION.

Senate Committee Will Consider Matter at an Early Meeting.

Washington, Jan. 15.—An extensive plan for the reclamation of swamp and overflowed lands will be considered at an early meeting of the senate committee on public lands. The scheme is advanced in a bill introduced by Senator Clapp, which provides for the establishment of a "drainage fund" from all moneys received from the sale of public lands in Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Louisiana, Michigan, Minnesota, Mississippi, Missouri, Ohio and Wisconsin except 5 per cent set aside by law for educational and other purposes. Under this bill the secretary of the interior is directed to make examinations and surveys for construction of works for drainage of swamp lands and report to congress on or before July 1 each year as to results. Reports are to include estimates of all contemplated works, quantity and location of lands which can be reclaimed and all facts relative to the practicability of the proposed projects.

First Senate's Stenographer Dead.

Boston, Jan. 15.—Oliver Dyer, said to have introduced stenography into this country, and was the first shorthand reporter in the United States senate, is dead here. He was eighty-three years of age.

UP-TO-DATE OPTICAL DEPARTMENT.

In Connection With Caldwell Jewelry Business—E. B. Smith, Graduate Optician, in Charge.

John M. Caldwell is making preparations to fit up a complete and up-to-date optical department in connection with his jewelry store and under the direction of Mr. E. B. Smith, a graduate optician of experience, who has been here some time getting this branch of the business started and working out plans for its development. The department is located in the rear of the store, and will be nicely and conveniently fitted up, supplied with a complete stock of optical goods and the most modern instruments including an ophthalmometer and a retinoscope, both of which have already been received and installed.

Mr. Smith, who is in charge of the department, is a graduate of the Bradley Polytechnic institute of Peoria, Ill., and of the South Bend (Indiana) Optical school. He is prepared to grind and fit glasses, and supplied with the latest improved instruments, as above indicated, for testing the eyes. He and Mr. Caldwell invite the patronage of the public for this department and guarantee satisfaction.

Another bit of up-to-date equipment at the Caldwell store is a device for color plating jewelry, just received by Mr. Smith. It is operated by means of electrical currents to produce the colors.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION.

The County Sunday School Convention and Institute opened at the Presbyterian church last night with County President T. A. Searcy presiding. Rev. J. J. Tatum conducted the devotional exercises, and Dr. Meigs, state secretary, who is conducting the work of the institute, spoke on "The Widening of Sunday School Horizon." There was a good attendance of Sunday School workers of the various denominations participating in the county organization.

The work of the institute will be resumed at 9 o'clock this morning and continued through the afternoon according to program. All are urged to attend. Dr. Meigs will go to Navasota this evening.

New York Jan. 15th—The Western Union Telegraph Co. is in receipt of advices that Kingston, Jamaica, has been destroyed by an earthquake. Loss of life is great.

ACCOMPANIED BY BOX.

Message on Brownsville Matter Attentively Listened To.

Washington, Jan. 15.—The president's Brownsville message, accompanied by a box neatly wrapped and tied with red tape containing cartridges and shells as exhibits in the case, was received by the senate Monday. The message was immediately after its receipt, attentively listened to. The exhibit was not opened, however, but remained on the desk of the vice president. The conclusion of the reading, a speaker requested that it be printed with the accompanying exhibits.

Mr. Lodge expressed a desire that the message and evidence be printed in the Record, commenting that there was no way so successfully to conceal information as to print it.

Senator Mallory, indorsing the action of the president, opened the discussion. He held that the president might have gone too far in preventing the re-enlistment of the soldiers involved, but otherwise he approved the president's order of discharging.

When Senator Clay, who followed, took the floor, the debate was given a lively turn by Mr. Tillman's interruptions.

Mr. Clay said the people of Georgia practically endorsed the president's actions. Senator Bacon followed with what he said was reported as the precedent in the Brownsville order in the discharge of a company of South Carolina national guardsmen by Senator Tillman, who was governor. This involved Senator Tillman again in the debate. Senator Spooner was in the midst of a constitutional discussion on the authority of the president in the case when adjournment was taken.

Mr. Spooner held that the president exercises his powers as commander in chief of the army, and the senate has no jurisdiction to review his actions. He also contended that congress has no power to legislate specifically to restore the soldiers discharged in the present case, declaring the evidence can only be had by impeachment proceedings, which must originate in the house of representatives. Several senators have indicated they intended to discuss the question, and the Brownsville matter is therefore now likely to absorb the attention of the senate for several days.

Mr. Foraker, saying he was not going to make a speech, but "a few remarks," observed that the "testimony amounts to a great deal," for the president tells us it is conclusive. But it does not remove the objection I have had from the beginning of this proceeding.

"What I have been trying to contend for, and I hope I will be successful in, is to secure a hearing for the men charged with this serious crime.

"This testimony has to be taken as the other was, behind closed doors, without anybody representing the men.

"That is the reason I shall not desist, notwithstanding what the president has said to the character of it, from pressing for an investigation of the subject, especially where the men are charged with the crimes of murder, perjury and conspiracy can be heard to the end, and if they can establish any facts in their favor they may have an opportunity to do so."

Mr. Foraker added that he should reserve his decision of the new evidence submitted by the president until after the investigation.

The president's message was ordered printed. It will lie on the table, together with the exhibit until the Foraker resolution for an investigation has been adopted, and then will be referred to the committee on military affairs.

The house spent most of Monday considering legislation pertaining to the District of Columbia, and proposed a number of bills, after which the consideration of the fortifications appropriation bill was resumed. The message of the president regarding the Colorado river was read.

Kansas Officials Inaugurated.

BIG COMMERCIAL ENTERPRISE ON FOOT

NEW $25,000 STOCK COMPANY FORMED BY LOCAL BUSINESS MEN.

$20,000 ADDITIONAL FOR BUILDING

Vehicles, Saddlery, Harness, Furniture and Undertaking the Lines—Wholesale and Retail—Charter Now Applied for—Officers of the Company.

Plans have been perfected by five leading business men of this city to successfully launch in Bryan in the near future a commercial and manufacturing enterprise of great magnitude. A stock company with $25,000.00 capital stock, all paid in, has been formed by Messrs. Parks & Waldrop, Tyler Haswell, A. W. Buchanan and Jno. A. Moore. The company will be known as the Buchanan-Moore Company and a charter has been applied for. Organization has already been permanently effected by the new company with the election of the following officers. A. W. Buchanan, President; Tyler Haswell, Vice-President; Jno. A. Moore, Secretary and Treasurer. The five stockholders comprise the board of directors.

It is the purpose of the company to engage in the sale of buggies and other vehicles, saddlery and harness, and the business of furniture and undertaking on an elaborate scale, with facilities, stock and equipment that will enable them to compete in prices and service with the dealers in these lines in the larger cities of the state. They will buy goods in carload lots and will conduct both a wholesale and retail business and reach out for trade by a vigorous advertising campaign and other progressive methods throughout this section of the state.

They will also equip and operate a complete and up-to-date saddlery and harness manufacturing and repair plant and employ a full corps of skilled workmen to meet any demands upon this line of their business.

In effecting the organization the new company takes over the well established, extensive and prosperous vehicle, saddlery and harness business of A. W. Buchanan & Co. The plan also involves the erection of a handsome, modern two-story $20,000.00 brick building on the site of the building now occupied by Buchanan & Co. To permit the erection of the building the business will be temporarily moved across the street to Mr. J. W. Coulter's warehouse building, to which such temporary additions will be made as necessary.

The erection of the new building, a great enterprise within itself, will be the work of Mr. Ira Gooch of Navasota, who owns the property, and who has entered into contract with the new company to erect a building designed especially for their use and on plans involving their suggestions and approval. The Eagle understands Mr. J. R. Hartgraves, a well known contractor of Caldwell, will erect the building, which will have a 110 feet plate glass front on Moseley street, a corner entrance, and 100 foot front, also with plate glass windows, on Bryan street. The company will occupy the whole of the commodious building which will be elaborately equipped throughout, and will include with the fixtures an up-to-date elevator for vehicles of all kinds. The contract calls for the completion of the building in months, or about July 1.

One of the handsomest funeral cars in the state will be at the service of the undertaking department which will be in charge of an experienced funeral director and expert embalmer.

The vehicle line handled will be large and complete with such celebrated leaders as Columbus Buggy Company and Moon buggies. A very large and complete furniture stock will meet every requirement of patrons of this department, to which special attention will be given.

The business will be under the direct charge of Messrs. A. W. Buchanan and Jno. A. Moore, who will give personal attention to all its details, and have the assistance of experienced salesmen in the several departments.

The gentlemen composing the new company are all well known business men of this city who have individually and in other firm connections achieved marked success in the past. Their ability and financial standing are a sufficient guarantee that the new enterprise will enjoy that growth and prosperity which such an undertaking richly deserves. The organization of the company is but another evidence of the widening and growth of this city as a commercial center, the influence of which is being felt in an ever enlarging sphere.

The big deal has been under consideration since the holidays and was concluded at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon with the attachment of signatures to the contracts. Stocktaking was begun at once on the stock of A. W. Buchanan & Co. and H. T. Lewis was awarded the contract for tearing down the blacksmith shop in the rear of the Buchanan & Co. store, and to erect the buggy and vehicle sheds in the rear of the Coulter building across the street, to be used temporarily. It is the purpose of the new firm to proceed with all possible diligence to the full realization of their plans. The new firm takes a seven year lease on the new building with a privilege of five years more.

NOTICE TO CITY TAXPAYERS.

Notice is hereby given that on and after Feb. 1, no poll tax payments can be made for the current year; 10 per cent delinquent fee will be added to all unpaid property taxes after that date, and the delinquent tax list will be promptly made up for publication. Frank Clarke, City Secretary. 46

S. W. Buchanan, who is establishing a cattle and hog ranch near town, has purchased W. T. Ford's herd of Jersey cattle, W. O. Sanders' stock of Poland-China hogs, and forty head of hogs, averaging 200 pounds around, from Jas. O. Chance.

W. W. Harris Jr. has resigned his position with the Goggan music house at Waco, and gone to Brownwood to accept a position with another firm at an advance in salary. Bryan friends of Mr. Harris will be pleased to learn that he is doing well.

As previously announced, the Texas Woman's College will observe Arbor Day Tuesday, Jan. 22, with public exercises including music and addresses. The exercises will be held at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. Everybody is invited to attend and bring a tree.

Misses Bertha Roberts and Cora Griffin visited Harvey Monday. Miss Roberts going for the purpose of securing a class in instrumental music. She met with substantial encouragement, securing a good class, and returned to Harvey yesterday to begin teaching this morning. Miss Roberts is an accomplished musician.

The ladies of the Christian church are taking an active and practical interest in the forward movement determined upon by the pastor and congregation. In addition to contributing $1000.00 to the new church fund they have set to work to fence the parsonage property, for which Mr. J. Allen Myers will generously furnish the necessary wire. The ladies will also have trees planted in and about the parsonage grounds.

R. D. McGill, W. E. Bates, J. E. Davis, Joe Williams, J. A. Crocker, Plummer Smith, George Smith, Tom Keefer, Jim Casey, Arch and Dan Broadway, John Barnett, Moore Rogers, Will Carroll, John Hutcheson, Chas. Casey, Chas. Sanders, Will Akin, Jim Burney, Jim Thomas, M. Peters, J. F. Cobb, Jim Fullberg and family, John Rumfield and others were here from Madison county yesterday.

At the prayer meeting at the Baptist church tonight Dr. Butler will begin a series of lectures on books of Bible considered consecutively until all have been reviewed. There services will be of special interest and profit and the membership of the church and the public is cordially invited. Dr. Butler is especially desirous that Sunday school and B. Y. P. U. workers and all Bible students attend. Attendance upon these services should be regular to obtain the greatest benefits.

Miss Clara Braatz, who has been in charge of Wilson & Edge's millinery department for several years, and whose talent and training in the realm of millinery has brought her success in an unusual degree here and elsewhere, has accepted a position with the firm of Woolf & Mark of San Antonio, and will leave for that city early in February. Many friends will regret her departure from Bryan. The department of Wilson & Edge will be in competent hands the coming season.

Dr. C. D. Meigs, state Sunday school convention secretary, who is here conducting the Brazos County Sunday School Convention and Institute work, conducted the opening exercises at the Allen Academy yesterday morning. Dr. Meigs read the thirteenth chapter of first Corinthians and made comments thereon of a highly instructive and inspiring character and addressed especially to the young men of the student body, who gave him undivided attention. His counsel and advice were such as will be of benefit to them throughout their lives.

GREETING

To our Customers:

The year 1906 has passed into history. It goes on record as one of the most successful years in the history of this section.

Our sales have been very satisfactory. We have striven hard in every possible way to attain this result; but much credit is due our many customers, whose regular and ever increasing patronage helped to swell the grand total.

Whether your contribution in the way of purchases was large or small, we extend our sincere and heartfelt thanks, and we assure you our relations have been very pleasant to us beyond the mere transaction of business.

We shall continue an aggressive campaign for your business, seeking to win it by deserving it and serving you to the very best of our ability, in every respect.

Wishing you, one and all, a happy and prosperous year,

Time Tells the Story

There is a big difference between the cost of making a first-class sewing-machine, embodying the best of materials and workmanship, and one which is made in the cheapest manner. The buyer of the cheap machine soon puts the difference of price in the constant cost for repairs, to say nothing of its annoying inefficiency.

DOCUMENTS AND PAPERS.

Resolution Adopted Calling on Attorney General to Submit Them.

Austin, Jan. 15.—Those house members favoring a searching investigation of Senator Bailey scored a victory Tuesday morning by adopting a resolution calling on the attorney general to submit to the house all documents and papers he has in his possession relating to Senator Bailey. The resolution, which was introduced by McGregor, Duncan, and others, is as follows:

Whereas, The members of this house are in the belief that the attorney general of this state has in his official possession certain papers, letters and books, which are original and not forgeries, which tend to throw light upon the questions arising upon a certain resolution for investigation pending as a special order in this house and on the questions as to whether there are improper relations between Senator Jos. W. Bailey and the Waters-Pierce Oil company and between said Bailey and H. C. Pierce and between said Bailey and the Standard Oil company; and,

Whereas, Said resolution is under consideration in this body, contemplating in part an investigation of the official conduct of said Joseph W. Bailey by a committee of this house; and,

Whereas, The information contained in the said papers, letters and books is necessary to be had by this house in order that it may act advisedly and intelligently upon said resolution for investigation; now, therefore,

Resolved, That the attorney general of this state be and he is hereby directed to immediately inform this house officially in writing as to how, from whom and when such papers, letters and books were obtained by him, whether he believes the same to be genuine or forgeries either in whole or in part, and under such safeguards and restrictions as he may prescribe, and for the further information of the house to exhibit said papers, letters, documents and books at the bar of the house for inspection by such of its members.

Mr. Kennedy objected to a second reading, but withdrew it at the request of Judge Duncan. After it was read the second time Mr. McGregor moved the previous question, which was seconded and a roll call by a vote of 71 to 46, the motion for the previous question prevailed. Several members tried to offer amendments, but the rules prohibited them. A motion to reconsider the vote on the previous question prevailed, 62 to 61, and amendments were agreed to by both sides, that the attorney general send up all books, papers, etc., and that his opinion as to their genuineness be stricken from the resolution. With the amendments the resolution went through without opposition.

Mr. McConnell of Palo Pinto rose to a question of personal privileges and took exception to the report of the Houston Chronicle of his speech in some particulars.

Mr. McGregor of Houston spoke to the Duncan resolution. He claimed that it provided for an investigation—not a trial. He stated the amendment proposed to make it a trial and also general denial and general demurrer. He said the charges against Bailey will bring before the bar of the world the integrity of a man which should be sifted to the bottom for the benefit of Mr. Bailey and the people of Texas. He denied that a sweeping investigation be in the nature of Spanish inquisition as Mr. Hume had charged, but said that it was for the purpose of getting light for both sides and giving fairness and justice to all. He insisted that a full and complete investigation would only vindicate the honor and integrity of the United States senator and attorney general. He said that the only power given to the committee under the substitute is to merely administer oaths. He said it was no time to juggle with phraseology and no time to tear to shreds the honor of Texas.

Mr. Hamilton of Hunt asked if Mr. McGregor knew of any court in the state that had the same rights as proposed for the committee to investigate under the Duncan resolution. Mr. McGregor asserted that the question was asked frivolously and for the purpose of interrupting and he proposed not to answer questions of that kind.

Owing to confusion in the galleries caused by crowds coming in the speech was interrupted for five minutes, but as the confusion continued Mr. Duncan moved that the house adjourn until 11:50 a. m.

During the morning session Mr. Kindred presented a resolution which arraigned legislators for working for corporations and would prevent them from acting in such capacity. Mr. Kennedy objected to its second reading.
